'A truly unique and exceptional home in terms of location, view and accommodation provision'

£425,000 (Leasehold)

Residential Sales and Lettings

The Penthouse, 102 East Street, Hereford, HR1 2LW

LOCATION

102 East Street was formerly the Constitutional Club and is located in East Street just off Church Street and midway between The Cathedral, of which an exquisite view is enjoyed from the property, and Hereford's High Town, the central shopping area. As suggested The Cathedral and its environs are within easy reach as is central Hereford with its range of shopping, leisure and recreational facilities, bus and railway station.

DESCRIPTION

102 East Street is a Grade II landmark property. The subject property occupies the upper floor and a roof space area which has been produced through the sympathetic and comprehensive conversion of the original building. The property is approached over flights of stairs which leads to this wonderful property which is of an excellent footprint. With underfloor heating, oak floors, an oak stairway to the upper floor with glass panels and cityscape views from many of the double glazed windows the property in more detail comprises:
